

Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 0 nays on the motion to advance 625, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: LB 625 is advanced. Next is LB 28. Senator Marsh.

CLERK: LB 28 is offered by Senator Marsh. (Read title.) It was first read on January 10 of this year, referred to the Education Committee, advanced to General File. I have no amendments to the bill.

PRESIDENT: Senator Marsh.

SENATOR MARSH: Mr. President and members of the Legislature, I just spilled Peter Hoagland's water.

PRESIDENT: Crisis. Pages to the rescue.

SENATOR MARSH: Get it off to the floor.

PRESIDENT: Pages to the rescue with paper towels.

SENATOR MARSH: This bill is a technical change because the status of the School of Journalism is changed to the College of Journalism. When Senator Carpenter, a number of years ago, put this into statute...it, in fact, will make no change. It simply will bring into compliance with the section of the law relating to the independent colleges of journalism. There will be no change in the way it is run. There will be no change in staffing. There will be no change for the students except to call it the College of Journalism. There are no dollars connected to it. Students and others tend to assume that the school is within a college. It is not. It has not been since Senator Carpenter was here, but we need to have it say the correct words and I urge your support for the advancement of LB 28.

PRESIDENT: Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. President and members of the Legislature, may I have a question of Senator Marsh, please.

PRESIDENT: I am sure she will.
